Re: Brent Bartley

Counsel:

I have been informed that you are representing Brent Bartley in regard to his knowledge that he may have as to the disappearance of Leah Freeman.

As you know, today Mr. Bartley took a polygraph test. He passed the questions regarding whether he was directly involved in the disappearance of Leah Freeman. However, he was found to be deceptive on the questions regarding whether anyone told him that they were responsible for Leah's disappearance and whether he was concealing critical information regarding Leah's disappearance.

I have authority from Mr. Burgett to make the following offer of immunity. If Mr. Bartley truthfully and fully discloses any and all knowledge he has regarding the disappearance of Leah Freeman, we will give him immunity for any crime regarding Leah Freeman that he may have been involved in that occurred after her disappearance such as hiding her body or disposing of other evidence. We will not give any immunity to Mr. Bartley for any direct involvement he may have had in her disappearance that would include crimes such as homicide, assault, kidnapping or sexual offenses.

We further expect Mr. Bartley to testify in any proceeding involving Leah Freeman. Mr. Bartley's information and testimony must be complete and truthful. Failure to be truthful and complete at all times or to otherwise comply with this agreement will result in its immediate termination.

This agreement pertains only to those charges and potential charges mentioned above. It is not a grant of immunity for any other crime Brent Bartley may have committed.
